

I oppose the weakening of Indiana's law. I am the victim of identify left and oppose any business being solicted or conducted over the telephone, particularly with an unknown person on the other end of the line.